Life is answered of all

Anybody who had question , it is a question of life , what it is and how our universe arise , the question in human had it from their existance . Human with brain can think this thought recall our sense to the core of existance , universe and all life are in the front of eye , it spoke loudly the existance , our science search life in a universe and the theory of LUCA tells it is decentness that bring life , and it grow all the time , existance create with the creation, when it come it is creation and when it grow it create , our knowledge from. Science authentic many theories scientifically, it is about existance , life , and development . Theory even said life form from ancestor which came in comets and astroid , we had debate on this and from such theories we give views on life. Life is the only question that came , and answer it , itself is a life with views to views , theories to theories human can suffer but they from their self in inside found peace. It is from life so , life is one vessel which had answer of why we are alive or why this universe is alive.

Isn't the success all human get , they get their life spent good. What is reality of human , human who live in many phenomenon had many world but isn't it this human who smile , how we found this smile , this smile is telling human life , it is to get all phenomenon in one life and life is giving nothing but all these . We from life can get fulfilment once we born we can have happiness and it keep follow , it's no so life had sadness. Our life is the answer of all , where billions of world in our head can be experienced.

Now or never

The universe take theory of development , here everything is in developing circumference, we get birth and what we had is consciousness, after it we can experience everything , happiness , sadness , pain, pleasure it all can be experience and also we can experience life . Our birth it already gave us permission to get things , it's not any human who go apart from life gift . It is only after birth that we can have happiness , pleasure and success, our knowledge led us to the state of success this ability is in every human. The large universal community is open through knowledge to know about life and live about good. This things can be possible when we are existed , so it is when you are now here in the world , you can be successful and it not gona come latter , it's here where you are existed.
